

Seasonal Picks

Though many beautiful blooms are available year-round, Colleen Elkins, owner of Bellingham-based Botanikal, recommends considering in-season flowers to maximize your wow-factor and budget.

Arahka by Fleming Photography

SPRING

Spring's flowers are bright and fragrant; always a welcome sign that warmer weather is on its way.

Tulips
Ranunculus
Snowball Viburnum
Hyacinths
Anemone

Erica by Josh Durias Photography

Peonies
Roses
Scabiosa
Dahilas
Lisianthus

SUMMER

Summer bouquets are marked by brilliant, full blooms and vibrant colors.

Melanie by Ashley Hamilton Photography

FALL

Fall is a great time to incorporate texture through feathers, berries, leaves and other natural elements.

Sunflowers
Zinnias
Mums
Pods
Grasses

Heather by Jen Fox Photography

Amaryllis
Tulips
Narcissus
Cymbidium Orchids

WINTER

Foliage should never be overlooked. Consider including evergreen boughs, magnolia leaves, eucalyptus, pieris or dusty miller for your winter bouquet.